Morning Assembly held on 9th of April 2026

The weekly morning assembly at Gandhi Memorial College, Srinagar, was conducted today with great enthusiasm and active participation from students and staff. The event took place on the college lawns, where a large gathering created a vibrant and disciplined atmosphere.

The assembly commenced with formal proceedings, followed by a keynote address delivered by the Principal, Prof. (Dr.) Masood Ahmad Malik. In his speech, he emphasized the importance of dedicating sufficient time to academic pursuits, maintaining focus, and striving towards higher ambitions in life.

Further enriching the session, Prof. Gh Jeelani shared valuable insights, motivating students to adopt a balanced and goal-oriented approach in their academic journey.

The program also featured student presentations:

- Nida spoke passionately about the importance of adopting a drug-free lifestyle, encouraging her peers to make healthy and responsible choices.
- Aisha presented effective strategies for time management, offering practical tips to enhance productivity and academic performance.

The assembly concluded on an inspiring note, leaving students motivated and better equipped to face their academic challenges.
