Farewell of Prof. Fatima Akhter (HOD) Botany on attaining superannuation on 30th of April 2026

A heartfelt farewell party was organized on 30th April 2026 at Gandhi Memorial College, Srinagar, to honor the superannuation of Prof. Fatima Akhter, Head of the Department of Botany, who retired after rendering 33 years of dedicated and exemplary service to the institution.

The event was organized in the college conference hall and witnessed the presence of the Principal, senior faculty members and non-teaching staff. The program commenced with a warm welcome address, where the contributions of Prof. Akhter to the academic growth and development of the college were highlighted. Her unwavering commitment, leadership in the Department of Botany, and mentorship of students were fondly remembered.

Colleagues shared their experiences and expressed deep appreciation for her professionalism, kindness, and inspiring personality. Several speakers acknowledged her role in shaping the department and fostering a culture of academic excellence.

As a mark of respect and gratitude, Prof. Akhter was felicitated with a shawl, mementos, bouquet, and a citation recognizing her remarkable journey and achievements. A presentation showcasing memorable moments from her career added a nostalgic touch to the celebration.

In her farewell speech, Prof. Fatima Akhter expressed heartfelt gratitude to the college administration, colleagues, and students for their continuous support and cooperation throughout her tenure. She reflected on her journey with pride and emotional warmth, encouraging everyone to continue striving for excellence.

The program concluded with a vote of thanks, followed by a group photograph session and informal interactions. The farewell gathering was both emotional and celebratory, marking the end of an illustrious career and leaving behind a legacy of dedication and inspiration.
